STAR WITNESS IN STABBING CASE HAS DISAPPEARED

HAZEL ANDERSON ELUDES ARREST; CASE WILL CONTINUE WITHOUT HER EVIDENCE

Hazel Anderson, who has been sought by the officials for the past week after the issuing of a bench warrant by Judge Atkinson could not be located yesterday, and it is now believed that she has departed for parts unknown. The woman was wanted as a witness in the McGraw stabbing case.

Judge Atkinson stated this morning that the case would proceed without the testimony of the woman, notwithstanding the objections of Robert Main, the victim of John McGraw, to prosecute the defendant for stabbing him with a knife. The Anderson woman was to have been used as the principal witness for the state as she was the only observer to the affair.

BOB GOVAN SAYS TAFT HAS OVER 587 DELEGATES

IN A TELEGRAM NEVADA DELEGATE CLAIMS PRESIDENT WILL BE NOMINATED

Bob Govan, of the Mizpah hotel, a delegate to the national republican convention at Chicago, is a firm believer that Taft will receive the nomination.

A night letter received by Judge J. F. Dennis from Govan this morning, states that Taft is assured of the nomination. "Have just been counting noses and Taft has 587 votes," wired the hotel proprietor. The dispatch further states that H. V. Moorehouse had just attended a meeting of the chairmen of the various Taft delegations, and from the count at this meeting Taft was assured of the nomination on the first ballot.

TONOPAH IS "AUTO CITY" OF THE SOUTH

That Tonopah is to be known as the "auto" city of the southern section of the state is in evidence each day. Yesterday no less than 20 motorists made the trip to Goldfield, filled with rosters for the Tonopah Elks' baseball team. Two months ago not over 30 automobiles were available in this city, while today over 75 machines are in the possession of proud owners of Tonopah. Two more cars of autos of different makes are scheduled to arrive here next Monday.

A force of workmen, under the supervision of Chief of Police Smith, has about completed filling in the numerous ravines and gulches that heretofore graced Brougner avenue. The thoroughfare, as a consequence, is rapidly being restored to a street and traffic has been resumed.

ATELL-KILBANE FIGHT TOMORROW AT THE BUTLER

EXCELLENT PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT AND FEATURE FILM FOR TOMORROW EVE

The patrons of the Butler theater are promised a rare treat in the opening of Miss Elnor Hatch in high-class singing for a week's engagement, commencing next Monday. Miss Hatch comes very highly recommended and the fact that she has played some of the biggest circuits is proof of her ability to entertain. The management is to be congratulated upon being able to secure such an artist.

The four reels of new pictures which will be shown tonight are beautiful beyond description. "The Little Wooden Shoe," by Edison, is the most beautiful story ever told, and followed by the "Hand of Fate," an exciting tale of international romance, by Selig. "A New Beginning," by Lubin, is exceptionally good. The program will close with a good comedy, entitled "A Mardi Gras Mix-up," Kalem, which is clear as a bell.

That clever singing team, Stewart and Irion, will be heard again tonight in new songs. Tomorrow Atell-Kilbane fight pictures.

HIGH MASONIC HONORS CONFERED ON RENO MEN

THIRTY-THIRD DEGREE CONFERRED IN ANCIENT SCOTTISH RITE MASONS

Two Reno men were the recipients of high Masonic honors last week during the session of the grand lodge, receiving the last and highest degree of Masonry on the evening of June 13 last.

William Francis Robinson and Albert Warren Holmes, both of Reno, were those who received the distinction. The thirty-third degree was conferred on them by Judge A. L. Fitzgerald, 33 degree, sovereign grand inspector general in Nevada, assisted by Professor Robert Lewers, 33 degree, and Matthew Kyle, 33 degree.

At the last session of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, held in Washington, D. C., last October, Mr. Robinson and Mr. Holmes were duly elected and their investment in the degree came in the usual course.

JURY UNABLE TO AGREE IN CATTLE KILLING CASE

SECOND TRIAL IS SET FOR JUNE 25 BY DISTRICT JUDGE MARK AVERILL

With the jury in the case of Nick Vico and Jerry Kominage, charged with a felony, the killing of a calf owned by O. K. Reed at Silver Bow, standing six for conviction and six for acquittal, all hopes that a verdict would be reached were abandoned today when the 12 men informed the court that it was impossible to reach an agreement.

The jury was then discharged by Judge Averill and the two defendants again remanded into the custody of the sheriff. The second trial will start on June 27, according to an order of Judge Averill.

The jury reported shortly before noon today that it was impossible to reach an agreement and their discharge followed.

The jury came into the court room at 10:20 o'clock this morning and informed Judge Averill that they were unable to agree upon a verdict. At the conclusion of this announcement the court ordered the jurors back to the jury room for another hour's deliberations. It was impossible to determine how the jury stood at this time and no information was volunteered by the foreman of the body, other than no verdict could be reached.

The case went to the jury last night about 8 o'clock, following a night session of the court. The evidence was concluded yesterday afternoon when the arguments commenced. The defense confined its side of the case to the establishment of an alibi, while the state in rebuttal served to attack the alibi and attempted to prove the inconsistency of the statements of the various witnesses called for the defense.

From the loud and angry sounds emanating from the jury room this morning it appeared that several of the jurors were sincerely discussing the case. It was predicted this morning that a hung jury would be the result and this prediction was strengthened by the fact that the jury did not seek additional instructions or ask for the reading of any particular portion of the testimony in the matter.

IONE MINING GROUP PURCHASED ENGLISH COMPANY

BRUNTON AND STEELE SELL PROPERTY TO MANCHESTER MINING COMPANY

A mining deal of vast importance to the Ione mining district has been consummated within the last few days, and includes the transfer of the Katherine group of claims to an English company.

The Katherine group is owned by Brunton and Steele and was under an option to C. K. Jarvis, Tom Murphy and James Forman. A previous option, as is claimed by the owners, was given to the Manchester Mining company of England, and this last named company made the initial payment for the property a day or two ago. The amount of the payment was not given out.

While the property was being developed by Jarvis, Murphy and Forman a shaft was sunk to the 150-foot level and ore extracted for a mill run. Excellent returns were received from the run, the values being in gold.

It is the intention of the new purchasers to commence active operations by the 15th of July when the work will be carried on an extensive scale.

RECOVERS FROM INJURIES RECEIVED IN MIDWAY MINE

Ed J. Erickson, secretary of the Midway Mining company, who narrowly escaped death about ten days ago when overcome with gas while in the workings of the property and in falling painfully lacerated his left cheek when it came in contact with a piece of rock, is now about minus the bandage that he was forced to wear.

The decorations were removed a day or two ago as the wound was nearly healed. Erickson was assisting in rescuing a miner who was overcome with gas when he fell a victim to the poisonous atmosphere.
